DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Who doesn't love a good heartwarming movie – especially during the Christmas season? The movie most watched during the holidays is Irving Berlin's, WHITE CHRISTMAS.

When we hear Bing's voice singing about a White Christmas, our imaginations conjure up memories of Christmases past. We remember that fat Christmas tree with tinsel that would melt if it touched the hot C7 bulbs. Do you remember the smell of freshly baked sugar cookies or anise squares? How about caroling through the neighborhood after shoveling the snow off the driveway? What about listening to the record player as it turned out the tunes of Percy Faith or Nat King Cole? Whatever the reason, WHITE CHRISTMAS remains dear to our celebration of this holiday. We feel warm and at peace, if only for a moment. Our cares get swept away....or under the rug while we wish for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

MICHAEL GREEN
DIRECTOR

Christmas should have a sense of warmth and peace. But for so many, it does not. The cares of life and not-so-good memories of the past don't engage the heart in making anything merry. Just take the past few years, for instance. Folks have suffered great loss and discouragement. Many have lost hope in others, and even in God. It's not an easy world we live in. But at the right time.....things could change. Things could suddenly take on a new meaning. Life may even begin to make sense. What was loss can become gain. What was dead can now come to life.

Just what am I getting at? Something that transcends nostalgic Christmas shows and memories. Something that creates gain out of loss and life from death. Someone with the answers and iron clad promises. We sing about Him in OH COME, ALL YE FATHFUL. We tear up when He is mentioned as the child who didn't cry in SILENT NIGHT. And we imagine what that glorious night on the hillside must have been like when we sing O HOLY NIGHT. But He is much more than a seasonal song.

Christmas is more than a movie or a warm feeling. Christmas is a Person. He is at the center of our celebration. He came to the earth "to seek and to save those who are lost." He came to give us life and that life more abundantly. Though we may still dream of a White Christmas – in Jesus, dreams come true. Every day. All year. He is the Dream Giver and Dream Fulfiler. To many He remains a simple Christmas carol, but to us at Poiema Arts and billions like us, He is and always will be the greatest Gift ever given to any man or woman. More than a once in season movie, Jesus gives us a reason to live and hope for a brighter day.

It is our greatest desire that you would know Him. We would love to share the Gift with you. Please ask us about this free gift exchange. A Life for a life. Our staff and actors would love to speak with you after this performance to introduce you to this greatest Gift of all.

From Poiema, we pray that you would have a memorable Christmas with your loved ones and those you hold dear. And, "may all your Christmases be white."

“May your days be merry and bright, and may all your Christmases be white.”
